

Room Attendant / Houseman Part-Time

Deadline:
15-11-2026

D'ANGLETERRE IS LOOKING FOR A ROOM ATTENDANT / HOUSEMAN

Are you passionate about luxury hospitality, take pride in the smallest details, and enjoy being part of a dedicated and international team? Do you have a flexible approach to work and a genuine desire to create exceptional guest experiences? Then we would love to hear from you!

We are looking for a service-minded and detail-oriented Room Attendant / Houseman to join our professional Housekeeping team on a part-time basis.

Contact person:
Roxana Crisan

Location:
Kongens Nytorv 34, 1050,
København K

WE OFFER

At d'Angleterre, we strive to provide our guests with personalised, elegant and memorable experiences of the highest international standard.

You will become part of a dedicated and dynamic team with high ambitions, a strong sense of collaboration and opportunities for professional development. We are committed to creating an excellent working environment where our colleagues feel valued and supported.

Through our internal training programme, d'Anglecademy, you will have the opportunity to develop your skills and grow as a d'Angleterre Host. Working with us means being part of a unique hotel where our shared commitment to excellence, attention to detail and genuine hospitality defines everything we do.

ABOUT THE JOB

As a Room Attendant / Houseman, you will primarily be responsible for cleaning and preparing guest rooms to the highest standards, ensuring that every room reflects the quality, elegance and attention to detail associated with d'Angleterre.

In addition to your Room Attendant responsibilities, you will support the wider Housekeeping team with Houseman duties, providing cover during periods of sickness and annual leave. These responsibilities include maintaining cleanliness in public and service areas, distributing linen, handling deliveries, supporting housekeeping logistics and assisting with other operational tasks as required.

This is a varied role that requires flexibility, initiative and a strong understanding of how every detail contributes to an exceptional guest experience.

WE EXPECT

You are passionate about service and excellence, with a keen eye for detail and pride in delivering work of the highest standard. You understand the importance of cleanliness, efficiency and consistency in a luxury hotel environment.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is flexible and comfortable taking on different responsibilities depending on the needs of the department.
- Has a strong eye for detail and takes pride in maintaining high standards.
- Is reliable, organised and able to prioritise tasks effectively.
- Can work independently while also being a supportive and collaborative team player.
- Has a positive, proactive and service-minded attitude.
- Is well-groomed and communicates professionally with colleagues and guests.
- Has a good communication in English

Previous experience in housekeeping or a similar role is an advantage.

If you are ready to contribute to an exceptional guest experience and become part of the d'Angleterre team, we look forward to hearing from you!

