

Banquet Supervisor

Deadline:
29-11-2026

D'ANGLETERRE IS LOOKING FOR A SUPERVISOR FOR OUR BANQUET TEAM

Are you a natural leader who knows how to bring people together, communicate clearly and create memorable guest experiences?

At d'Angleterre, we are looking for a Banquet Supervisor with strong leadership and communication skills who enjoys taking responsibility and leading from the front. You know how to create structure in a busy environment, motivate your team and collaborate effortlessly across departments, always with the guest experience at the centre.

If you are passionate about luxury hospitality and thrive in an environment where attention to detail, teamwork and personal service matter, we would love to hear from you.

WE OFFER

You will become part of an international and ambitious environment where no two days are the same. Together with a dedicated team, you will create personal, stylish and elegant experiences for everything from intimate meetings to larger events and celebrations.

Through our internal d'Anglecademy, you will also have access to training and development opportunities designed to support your professional and personal growth.

ABOUT THE JOB

As our Banquet Supervisor, you will play a key role in the daily operation of the Banquet department. You will lead and support a team of dedicated waiters and ensure that meetings, events and celebrations are executed to the high standards our guests expect from d'Angleterre.

A central part of your role will be communication and coordination. You will work closely with colleagues across the hotel, communicate directly with meeting and event guests, and ensure that everyone involved has the information they need.

You will be expected to take ownership, remain calm when plans change and set the standard through your own presence and behavior.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

We are looking for someone who is confident in taking the lead while still being approachable and supportive.

You are a strong communicator who can give clear direction, listen to your team and build positive working relationships across different departments. You understand that great leadership is not only about managing the operation, but also about creating trust, motivating others and bringing out the best in your team.

We imagine that you:

- Have experience from a similar role within hotels, restaurants, events or luxury hospitality
- Have strong leadership skills and enjoy taking responsibility
- Are an excellent communicator who can communicate confidently with guests, colleagues and management
- Know how to motivate, guide and support a team during both busy and quieter moments
- Are structured, proactive and attentive to detail
- Stay calm and solution-oriented when priorities change
- Lead by example and take pride in creating exceptional guest experiences
- Enjoy working closely with other departments and understand the importance of teamwork

- Are flexible and comfortable working evenings, weekends and varying shifts

Above all, we are looking for someone with presence, energy and a genuine interest in people. Someone who can combine operational excellence with warm leadership and who wants to contribute to both the guest experience and the development of the team.

ABOUT D'ANGLETERRE

At d'Angleterre, we believe that people are at the heart of true luxury hospitality. Our history, surroundings and traditions are important, but it is our colleagues who bring the experience to life every day.

That is why we look not only for experience and professional skills, but for people with the right attitude: individuals who are passionate, pragmatic, flexible and genuinely committed to delivering personal five-star service.
